407 Blair, Eugene, OR

Explode-A-Tron

"A buffet of brutal experimental insanity" says Marshall Falcon of Roadrunner Studios. Explode-A-Tron is comprised of JeffreyTron and JeremyTron, two dudes from rural towns who have been life long combatants of boredom and normality.

Bad Luck Blackouts

Blood-pumping and highly addictive, Bad Luck Blackouts hit the skate-punk scene hard after forming in Eugene, Oregon late 2010. Kyra Van Winkle, Johnny Kraft and Aaron Carlson are new old-school punk and are super-charged!

Special guest, Comedian Rick Shapiro!

Portland April 23rd
The Star Theater
13 Northwest 6th Avenue
Portland

Dingo Dizmal & Olive Rootbeer
Olive and Dingo are a powerhouse of fun, class and creative that the city of Portland has grown to love. Olive Rootbeer is an amazing balloon artist and clown. Dingo Dizmal is an exuberant, comedian and a circus revolutionary long before is was cool. (In fact, it seemed to be illegal). As a visual artist Dingo made the Celebrated Rubber Chicken paintings well known. They ride super tall bikes, and yes, you have seen them on Portlandia!

With a Special Appearance by: Rick Shapiro From the mean streets of Los Angeles Rick Shapiro is the king of uncomfortable funny! You have seen him on Louis CK's TV show, an in the new hit movie 'Project X'!

And,
William Ham
Lonnie Wages & Friends
The Bottleneck Blues Band

Tokyo Death Stare

Performing Arts Center (PAC)

KALA@Hipfish 1017 Marine Dr. Astoria. (18 & OVER)

William Ham
William Ham is an angry, morose, surly intellectual who hates everyone on the planet and most of all hates himself. This constant mode of disdain makes him a funny comedian - if you like that kind of humor, and a marvelous actor. He also claims to be a writer, but never answers messages.

Seattle April 28th at The Comet
922 E. Pike Street

Bad For Jazz presents both days in Seattle!

Special Guest Aaron Dixon
Aaron Dixon marched with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. as an adolescent in an effort to end housing discrimination in Seattle. He was appointed Captain of Seattle Black Panther Party at the age of 19 by Bobby Seale, and ran for the United States Senate in Washington state on the Green Party ticket in 2006.

Sue Ann Harkey
Sue Ann Harkey is considered one of the best female guitarists of all time, best known for playing the 12-string guitar, playing it with mallets, plectrums, and rods to create unique sounds. Her music falls tends to fall under the category of "new age" or "futurist folk." She combines politically infused lyrics with improvised music that is often inspired by Middle Eastern and African sounds and beats. She cofounded the cassette label and political pamphlet distributor Cityzens for Non-Linear Futures as well as the improv group Audio Letter.

Ghost Power
"I have never been more impressed with two single people. That's right, two. There are only two of them and they make bands of five sound like kittens. Grunge is still alive and well and boy do these guys rock it. The front man even switched off from bass to guitar and back depending on the song."
-from Tabitha Englebright at What's Up Magazine

Spike
and author Pat Thomas

Seattle April 29th
Rat & Raven 4 – 9pm (all ages)
5260 University Way

Operation ID
What began as a duet between Ivan Arteaga (saxophone/clarinet) and Jared Borkowski (guitar) in a basement quickly expanded to include Evan Woodelle on drums and David Balatero on bass, playing improvisation-heavy, free jazz-influenced compositions. Rob Hanlon soon joined on keyboards.

NON GRATA
Cut from every swath of the American musical quilt, channel surfing through whatever genre or context fits a performance. We're a chamber orchestra that plays jazz, a jazz band that plays metal, a metal band that plays country, a country band that plays funk, a funk band that plays punk, a punk band that plays music, musicians having a good time. Basically, we're the bastard children of art music and we're running with scissors.

HYMEN
Quasi Mojo
